

Dry Fly Selection

This intriguing dry fly presentation explores the hatch phases of an insect and the essential fly selections that match each stage. Trout posture and feed differently when they key on a specific hatch phase. Learn how to read these rise forms as an equation that equals the right fly at the right time in the right place. The concepts are revolutionary and video is extraordinary. The content of this presentation will hook hundreds more fish on a dry fly in your lifetime...guaranteed! Link to Master Chart handout, still and video clips included. Back